

Beverage Store Manager

Location: Manchester, M11 3DL

Closing Date: 25/10/2024

Description:

In the role of Beverage Stock Manager, you will be the key figure in managing our extensive beverage inventory. This pivotal role requires precise stock management, cost control, and coordination between the commercial and logistics teams, as well as external suppliers and delivery partners. Your goal is to ensure seamless operations and optimal stock levels to meet the high demands of our venue's events. You will oversee beverage inventory across 5 levels, 15 cellars, and multiple storerooms, implementing control processes to track stock levels, ensuring accurate and timely replenishments. Monitoring and managing stock levels is crucial, involving regular audits to minimize wastage and overholding. You will place and manage all beverage orders and be the conduit between the external supplier and the in-house logistics and goods-in teams. Creating a working relationship with our suppliers and delivery partners will be key to a smooth operational process.

Responsibilities:

You will also work alongside the F&B Cost Controller to lead on monthly stocktakes, ensuring accuracy in counting, efficient reporting and a timely and effective stocktake process.

Main Duties and Responsibilities:

- Proven experience in stock control, inventory management, or a related role within a large venue, hospitality, or similar environment.
- Strong analytical skills, with the ability to generate and interpret detailed reports.
- Excellent organizational and multitasking abilities, with a keen eye for detail.
- Proficiency in inventory management software and Microsoft Excel.
- A hands-on approach, and the ability to communicate efficiently with various departments.
- Knowledge of health and safety regulations related to stock handling.

Benefits:

We understand that to continue positively disrupting the sports and live entertainment industry, we need a diverse team to help us do it. We also believe that inclusivity drives innovation, strengthens our people, improves our service, and raises our excellence.
